

BARRS COURT PRIMARY SCHOOL

Monday 18th May 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Those of you who have read this week's newsletter will be aware that the children have once again filled the GEM jars. This means they have earned a whole-school treat, chosen by our School Parliament.

School Parliament met today and decided that they would like a non-school uniform day and extended play in the afternoon. So it has been decided that , this Friday, 22nd June, will be a non-school uniform day. Children may come to school wearing their own clothes.

The children have earned over 2,000 GEMS since the last whole-school reward by showing our school values of determination, courtesy, respect, joy and pride. We are very proud of them all.

Thank you to School Parliament for helping to decide the reward.

Regards

Barrs Court
